PETITION FOR REVIVAL OF AN APPLICATION FOR PATENT ABANDONED UNINTENTIONALLY UNDER
37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b)

1. This application became abandoned on March 8, 2001.

2. This application became abandoned because the failure to prosecute was an unintentional delay. The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date until the filing of this petition was unintentional 37 C.F.R. § 1.137(b)(3). We believe the unintentional delay resulted from the following circumstances. I am the responsible attorney for this case. My normal procedure for ensuring that we respond to office actions is to review a docket report that has been marked up by the administrative assistant that I work with. The docket report includes our internal case numbers, a description of the actions that are required, and the dates by which the described actions must be taken. Before I see the report, the administrative assistant marks the report to identify office actions or other tasks that I must address. Items that have already been completed are checked off so that I don't have to spend time looking at a completed item.

Because of surgery and subsequent rehabilitation, the full-time administrative assistant that I work with was out of the office from 30 January 2001 to 26 March 2001. Three temporary office workers filled in at various times during her absence. At some point the listing corresponding to this case on the docket report was checked off as completed, with the words "filed 1/4/01" appended to the listing. In other words, someone erroneously thought that the filing of the notice of appeal--which was mailed on 1/4/01--corresponded to our filing an appeal brief. Accordingly, I believed that the appeal brief in this case had been filed--until Examiner Reddick called on 10 August 2001 and pointed out our error.

I was not in the office to receive Examiner Reddick's call because I was away on vacation. When I returned on Tuesday, 14 August 2001, I called Ms. Reddick and left a voice mail. She returned my call on Wednesday, 15 August 2001, and confirmed that the case was abandoned. We reviewed our files and pieced together the circumstances by which we unintentionally committed the above docketing error.
